

Good morning, Church. Daily Reading, Luke 1.

Psalm 35:9-10 "Then I will rejoice in the LORD. I will be glad because he rescues me.

With every bone in my body I will praise him:

“LORD, who can compare with you?

Who else rescues the helpless from the strong?

Who else protects the helpless and poor from those who rob them?” (NLT)

In the beginning verses, David reaches out to the Lord for protection. He asks the Lord to fight with those who fight against him. For God to take down those who chased after him. For God to catch them by surprise and trap them in the snares they set for him.

As we see the Lord’s hand of protection, keeping us from harm, we too join with David in rejoicing in our Savior, as He is our deliverance and our salvation.

When David mentioned "every bone in my body," he was saying, "With everything inside of himself, he will give praise."

It should be our desire to magnify the Lord. To sing our songs of praise to His holy name. David knew there was no one like God, who protects the poor and needy. There was no one like God to bring triumph out of tragedy. There was no one like God to be a helper to the helpless.

No matter what we face, not only does God provide and protect, giving us reason to praise Him, but we praise Him for His faithfulness to be our strength and our salvation.

"Praise Him! Praise Him! Jesus, our blessed Redeemer!" By, Fanny Crosby.

"Praise him, praise him! Jesus, our blessed redeemer!

Sing, O earth, his wonderful love proclaim!

Hail him, hail him! Highest archangels in glory!

Strength and honor give to his holy name!

Like a shepherd, Jesus will guard his children.

In his arms he carries them all day long.

Refrain:

Praise him! Praise him! tell of his excellent greatness.

Praise him! Praise him! ever in joyful song."
