

Good morning, Church. Daily Reading, Proverbs 19.

Galatians 6:10 "Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith." (NLT)

Jesus mentioned that when we serve the needs of others, nobody who, "even the least," we are ministering to Him. There are times we might know, see, or even share things with others in need. But at other times, we don't know, have never met and might not ever meet those we have the opportunity to serve.

Next two praises.

Here is one from Judy E. "Sometimes God uses complete strangers who we will never meet for His purpose. When Mike and Jill's family had to be evacuated from Congo as missionaries because of civil war, it was 5 days between our hearing the State Department issue, "All Americans out" and knowing they made it. We heard from several people during that time, but no one had any real news, including the State Department. Finally, I received a call at work. The caller said, "You don't know me. I'm a ham radio operator. I have a message that was relayed around the world. The message is from Jill. It says, "We're out. We're safe." 4 simple words that said it all. Only trusting that God was/is in control got us through that time."

#2 From Kristi, a volunteer who works for my friend, Dr. B.

Hello friend and good morning. I just wanted to say hi, and I love you. Lil praise report. My background finally cleared for the Recovery Station. And also JCPenney, lol. I want to thank you. I was going through a tremendous dark time. Without Jesus and your support and encouragement, I am not sure I would have made it. I just want you to know how valuable and important you are to the Kingdom and especially to me. Be blessed. A 100-fold return on ALL you and your ministry does and all you pour out in Jesus' name.

Happy Friday. I hope you are in church this Sunday. Potluck Sunday. Yummy.
