

Good morning, Church. Daily Reading, Proverbs 20.

Jeremiah 42:3 "Pray that the LORD your God will show us what to do and where to go."

Have you ever asked God for direction in your life and wondered if God would answer? Please read the following story from a friend and know that God does answer our prayers.

"The other day, I was praying and asking the Lord if I was supposed to continue going to my barber that I have had for the last year or so. I get my haircut often, and while my barber was away, I went to another barber. He paid close attention to every detail and gave me exactly what I wanted.

Although that haircut cost $9 more, I was ready to switch and take the hit.

I asked God for a sign as I went back to my old barber, if I was supposed to switch to the new barber (hoping God would give me the green light).

Upon entering the barbershop, my barber and I were alone, and he asked me for the first time where I pastored. I have prayed for him a time or two over the last year, but I was surprised by his question. He hasn't shown much interest in my vocation and doesn't talk about faith but has stated that he believes in God.

He proceeds to tell me that he and his girlfriend broke up recently because she cheated on him. He said that he and his wife have started to work on their relationship after 3 years of separation.

At this point he starts to tear up, locks the door and says that he had been waiting for me to come in and sit in his chair to confide in me what he was going through as he wept uncontrollably.

I got out of my chair and hugged him and prayed over him, and encouraged him that God wants to restore his marriage and that God loves him, and that He is a God of reconciliation.

He received my words, and I invited him to church on Sunday. When I left, I felt like God told me that I was exactly where He wanted me and that this was my barber.

Please keep Chris in your prayers, that he starts to attend church, and commits his life to Jesus."
